Sakshi Barmecha

Calligraphy Artist

Introduction

I'm Sakshi Barmecha, a Calligraphy artist and the founder of calligraphy gifting studio called The Writing Letters.

What started as fun postings on Instagram during the first lockdown led me to discover a niche career path for myself.

As I learned more about calligraphy, I dove in to discover its tradition and history. Soon I realized I've found my craft, my calling.

Now through TWL, I spread my love for the art of beautiful writing. TWL offers calligraphy services in both handwritten and digital forms, using a variety of scripts and styles.
